

PROJECT GRANTSMANSHIP 2011/2012

Project Grantsmanship was developed in 2007 as a partnership of the Annenberg Foundation, California Community Foundation, and The Grantsmanship Center. Its purpose is to strengthen community-based organizations in Los Angeles County by training their leaders to plan more effective programs and to produce compelling proposals for funding these programs. It is now supported by a growing group of foundations.

HOW DOES PROJECT GRANTSMANSHIP WORK? The partner organizations underwrite up to 90 percent of the tuition for eligible nonprofit representatives to attend The Grantsmanship Center’s five-day Grantsmanship Training Program®, a comprehensive, hands-on workshop. Participants are trained in the full grant development process – from researching funding sources to writing and reviewing grant proposals – through individual exercises, small group projects and lectures. Project Grantsmanship also provides all participants with follow-up support, including proposal reviews and access to The Grantsmanship Center’s funder databases.

ARE THERE OTHER REQUIREMENTS? Because of the comprehensive nature of this training and the team approach to certain segments, participants are required to attend all scheduled sessions for all five days. Additionally, within five months of completing the training, each participant is required to submit a draft proposal to The Grantsmanship Center for review. (Participants receive specific guidelines for this submission during the training.) Once the participant completes the entire review process, and an online survey, half of the participant’s tuition payment will be refunded.

WHAT IS THE COST? $200 per person for organizations with budgets less than $750,000, and $300 per person for organizations with budgets between $750,000 and $10 million. Each participant is eligible to receive a rebate of half of the payment if follow-up requirements are met. The usual cost of the training is $895 per person.

WHO MAY ATTEND? Board members or paid staff of organizations based in Los Angeles County with IRS 501(c)(3) public charity status and annual budgets at or below $10 million are eligible. Only two registrants per organization may enroll. (Sorry, volunteers and independent consultants are not eligible.)
